A TARTAR

He called her an "angel" before they were wed.
But that, alas! don't endure.
Before many months had passed over his head
He wished that she was one, for sure.

NOTHING STRANGE

The rooster has his cocktail;
The orchard gets plum full;
The onion squanders every scent;
And the radish has a pull.

OBITUARY.

Emily Elizabeth Shannon was born December 12, 1906, and departed this life Jan. 11, 1907. She was the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Shannon of Trace Branch. We would say to the bereaved parents, weep not for Emily, she is not dead, but is at rest.

She was sick two days. A mother, father, two sisters and two brothers are left to mourn their loss. Emily is now a shining angel around the great white Throne of Heaven, beckoning for papa and mamma to come home. She was laid to rest on the point overlooking their home. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. H. Miller. A Cousin.

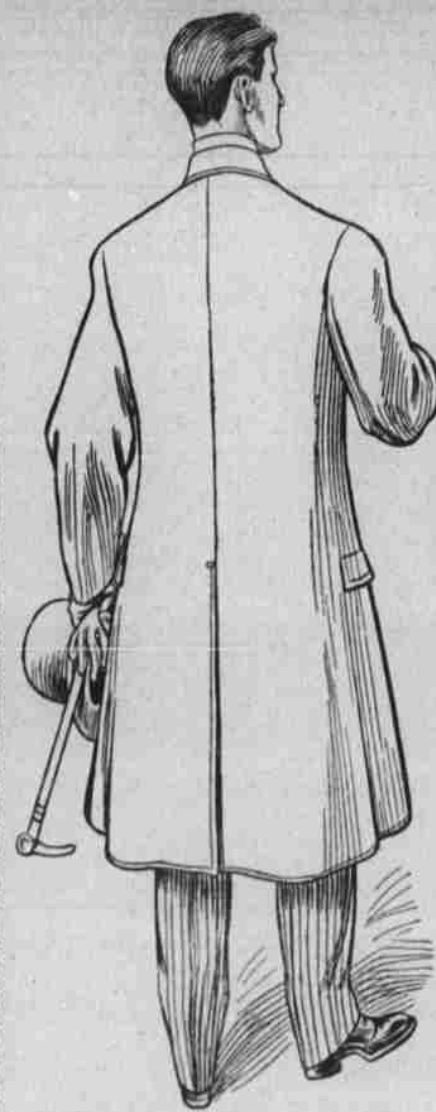

Everything new and fresh at Picklesimer's.
